

Class Information 2009-2010

Class Name: Anatomy & Physiology
Teacher Name: Jeri Brummett
Email Address: Work: brummetj@rockcreekschools.org
Contact Time: Black Day - 1st Period 8:30 - 10:00

Class Description:

Anatomy & Physiology is a study of the structure & function of the human body.

Individual units of instruction:

- | | |
|------------------------------|------------------------|
| -Anatomical Terminology | -Urinary System |
| -Skeletal & Muscular Systems | -Senses |
| -Digestive System | -Respiratory System |
| -Nervous System | -Cardiovascular System |
| -Integumentary System | -Endocrine System |
| -Reproduction & Human Growth | - Safety |

Class Expectations:

Students should be very actively engaged in the learning process. A variety of dissections will be used to provide hands on learning, and enhance student understanding. Students are expected to abide by the student handbook regarding classroom conduct.

Classroom Supplies:

- | | |
|-------------------|-----------------------------------|
| - book cover | - 2" (min.) binder |
| - colored pencils | -15-20 tabs (dividers) for binder |

Other Notes:

- *Students should maintain an organized 3 ring binder.
- *We hope to take a cadaver trip.
- * Several dissections will take place throughout the course of the year.

Concurrent Credit opportunity through Highland Community College:

- $102.00/credit hour plus a $30 lab fee - 4 hours ($438.00)
- I nstallment/promissory payments available
- May 2010 HCC final for credit.
- Mr. Sullivan will be in contact with you regarding this option.